

Geeters Beach Volleyball Description of Levels of Play

A - Competitive

This competitive level of competition is highest level of competition. This is for players that have beach experience and can play competitively in a consistent manner.

B - Advanced

This intermediate level of Competition is for Players that have limited beach experience and are developing their game. They may have indoor experience and are making their strides towards the beach game.

C - Intermediate

This Intermediate level of Competition is for players that are beginning their beach experience and are developing their game. And are interested in getting involved in the beach game

D - Recreational

This Recreational level of involvement is for players that want to sample the beach experience at a slower pace. This level is for beginners.

Co-ed - Various

This level of competition lets men and women play together in various categories.